Protect Our Waterways

Help us keep Wentzville's waterways clean! Throughout the month of June, the Wentzville Stormwater Division is asking for residents' help in protecting our local waterways. When we all do our part, we can ensure that Wentzville's streams, lakes and creeks stay clean and beautiful. One easy way to protect our local waterways is to make sure that only rain goes down the drain. When it rains, water runs over roofs, streets, parking lots and yards before washing into City storm drains and eventually reaching our creeks and lakes. Along the way, this "runoff" picks up materials like fertilizer, pet waste, litter, automotive fluids and yard waste. Runoff eventually enters our waterways untreated, meaning that any chemicals it picks up along the way are also washed into our lakes and streams. Help us keep debris, waste and hazardous materials out of local storm drains by reducing litter, picking up dog waste and disposing of hazardous liquids in the proper manner. Learn more about how you can protect local waterways at www.wentzvillemo.gov/stormwater.

National Night Out

Each year residents from more than 15,000 communities join together to celebrate National Night Out (NNO), a nationwide initiative to fight back against crime and build ties between community members and law enforcement. As part of this event, Wentzville invites residents to join us on Tuesday, Aug. 3 in celebration of National Night Out. Residents are encouraged to turn on their porch lights, go outside and gather with their neighbors at barbeques, block parties and other celebrations.
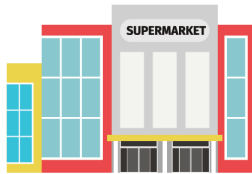

If your neighborhood would like a visit from City officials during National Night Out, or if you need more information about how to plan your own NNO activities, please contact Officer Mainieri at (636) 639-2171 or via email at Michael.Mainieri@wentzvillemo.gov. For more information and ideas, visit www.wentzvillemo.gov/NNO.
