Economic Development Activity Map

In recent years, the City of Wentzville has seen an explosion of economic development activity, specifically within commercial and industrial markets. This Economic Development Activity Map — which can be found at www.wentzvillemo.gov/DevelopmentMap — indicates the location and approximate square footage of recent economic development activity throughout Wentzville. As indicated on the map, these projects are in various stages of development — from approval to construction. Depending on new activity, the Economic Development Office will update this map every six to 12 months. If you have questions, please email ecodev@wentzvillemo.gov.

Wentzville Communication Ambassadors

Are you a business owner passionate about making a difference in Wentzville?
Join the Wentzville Communication Ambassadors (WCA) for 2025!

Launched in early 2023, WCA is a grassroots group of residents and business owners dedicated to creating meaningful connections and providing valuable insights to City leaders. As an Ambassador, you'll help the City keep a pulse on the issues that matter most, allowing us to address community concerns, bridge information gaps and tackle misinformation. With a commitment of only about six hours per year, this “word-of-mouth” network is essential for sharing factual updates within the community.

Interested? Join us in building a well-informed, connected Wentzville. To apply, please complete a short form at www.wentzvillemo.gov/WCA.
