Salute Our Troops Banners

Have you noticed our new banners around town? These banners, which are part of the Salute Our Troops program, were put up just before Memorial Day to honor active-duty military, veterans and those who have made the ultimate sacrifice.

To celebrate their service, the banners will be displayed on light poles along Schroeder Creek Boulevard and William Dierberg Drive until Veterans Day. The banner application for the 2026 Salute Our Troops program is now open. For more information, visit www.wentzvillemo.gov/SaluteOurTroops.

Rod Run Car Cruise

Join us on Aug. 1 from 6-9:30 p.m. along Pearce Boulevard. The event, which is presented by Harris Automotive and sponsored by the City of Wentzville, benefits the Substance Tobacco Alcohol Resistance Training program (S.T.A.R.T.). Questions? Please call Harris Automotive at (636) 327-4042.

Worth the Trip!

Historic downtown is the heart of Wentzville — and right now, it needs our community more than ever! Construction may make it harder to park or drive through, but your favorite shops and restaurants are open and ready to serve you. Grab lunch to-go, swing by a boutique after work and show your support. Historic Downtown is still here. Still local. Still Worth the Trip, Wentzville! Learn more at www.wentzvillemo.gov/WorthTheTrip.
